 - (ii) the National Employment Standards.
- (b) This clause does not apply in relation to disputes about:

12.2 General

- (a) Subject to the requirements of the FW Act a party to a dispute may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany or represent them at any stage of the dispute.
- (b) The parties to a dispute must genuinely attempt to resolve the dispute through the processes set out in this clause and must cooperate to ensure that these processes are carried out expeditiously.
- (c) Whilst a dispute is being dealt with in accordance with this clause, work must continue in accordance with usual practice, prior to the dispute arising, provided that this does not apply to employees who have reasonable concerns about imminent risk to their health and safety, have advised the CEO of this concern and have not unreasonably failed to comply with a direction by the CEO to perform other available work that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

- (d) Subject to any agreement between the parties in relation to a particular dispute, it is agreed that the provisions of the FW Act will be applied by the FWC with respect to the exercising of its functions and powers under this clause.
- (e) Any decision or direction the FWC makes in relation to the dispute will be in writing.
- (f) Subject to the right of appeal under clause 12.5(d) any direction or decision of the FWC, be it procedural or final, will be accepted by all affected persons and complied with by the parties.
- (g) A dispute being dealt with in accordance with the Northern Territory Public Sector Teacher and Educator 2014—2017 Enterprise Agreement or the NES that remains unresolved at the commencement of this Agreement will continue to apply as if those terms formed part of this Agreement.

12.3 Internal Resolution

- (a) In the event of a dispute, the parties will in the first instance endeavour to resolve the matter internally as follows:
 - (i) The employees will refer the matter to their immediate supervisor for resolution, who may request that the employees provide written details of the matter, provided that where the dispute concerns alleged actions of the immediate supervisor, the employees may bypass this step.
 - (ii) If the matter cannot be resolved under clause 12.3(a)(i) above, it will be referred in writing to the relevant manager for resolution.
 - (iii) If the matter cannot be resolved under clause 12.3(a)(ii) above, it will be referred in writing to the CEO for resolution.

12.4 Conciliation

- (a) If the dispute remains unresolved after the parties have genuinely attempted to reach a resolution in accordance with clause 12.3, any party may refer the dispute to FWC, for resolution by conciliation.
- (b) Provided the requirements of clauses 12.2 and 12.3 have been met by the parties to the dispute, it is agreed that jurisdiction will not be raised by any party at conciliation.

- (c) Conciliation before the FWC will be regarded as completed when:
 - (i) the parties have reached agreement on the settlement of the dispute; or
 - (ii) the member of FWC conducting the conciliation has either of their own motion or after application by any party, satisfied themselves that there is no likelihood that further conciliation will result in a settlement within a reasonable period.

12.5 Arbitration

- (a) If a dispute remains unresolved at the completion of conciliation, either party may refer the dispute to the FWC for determination by arbitration, subject to any jurisdictional submissions.
- (b) Where a member of the FWC has exercised conciliation powers in relation to the dispute, that member will not be the member responsible for conducting the arbitration if any party to the dispute objects to that member doing so.
- (c) Subject to clause 12.5(d) the determination of the FWC is final and binding.
- (d) A party may appeal an arbitrated decision of a single member of the FWC, with leave of the full bench, provided that such appeal is lodged within 21 days of the decision being made.

- 13.1 In relation to matters of general interest to the NTPS, the parties to this Agreement agree to utilise the PSCC established under the PSEM Act.

- 13.3 The functions of the consultative committee established in clause 13.2 are set out in Schedule 3.

- 13.5 The principal or manager may establish the workplace consultative committee on:
 - (a) his or her own initiative; or
 - (b) a request from an employee.

- 13.6 The purpose of the workplace consultative committee is to provide a forum to assist principals or managers and employees to develop an effective resolution of workplace issues in a collaborative manner.

- (b) the employee or employees advise the CEO of the identity of the representative; the CEO must recognise the representative and deal with them in good faith.

- 14.5 In this clause, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on employees if it results in:

redundancies and no job losses arising directly from the implementation of this Agreement.

- 15.2 The Commissioner supports certainty of employment through the appropriate application of the merit principle. The use of higher duties, temporary employment and casual employment arrangements in the NTPS are appropriate in certain circumstances.
- 15.3 Further, the parties recognise the ongoing permanency project to reduce the numbers of fixed period teachers.
- 15.4 In support of the permanency project, during the life of the Agreement:

36.6 Primary Caregiver Parental Leave

- (a) Only one parent can receive primary caregiver parental leave entitlements in respect to the birth or the adoption of their child. An employee cannot receive primary caregiver parental leave entitlements:
- (i) if their spouse is, or will be, the primary caregiver at, and immediately following, the time of the birth or day of placement of their child;
 - (ii) if the employee has taken, or is eligible for, partner leave entitlements under clause 36.7 in relation to their child; or
 - (iii) if they are a casual employee, other than an eligible casual employee.

Note: It is not intended for an employee to access primary caregiver leave where they are providing spousal support in circumstances where their spouse, the birth giver, had a caesarean section. There will be exceptions, for example, where the birth giver suffers a post-natal medically certified condition that prevents them from caring for their new born child, but not where they voluntarily choose not to.

- (b) An employee with less than 12 months continuous service at the time of commencing parental leave, or an eligible casual employee, who will be the primary caregiver of their child is entitled to up to 52 weeks unpaid parental leave.
- (c) An employee who has completed at least 12 months continuous service at the time of commencing parental leave and who will be the primary caregiver of their child is entitled to up to three years primary caregiver parental leave, comprising:

- (i) where continuous service completed at the time of commencing parental leave is at least 12 months and less than five years: 14 weeks paid parental leave and 142 weeks unpaid parental leave; or
- (ii) where continuous service completed is five or more years at the time of commencing parental leave: 18 weeks paid parental leave and 138 weeks unpaid parental leave; or
- (iii) where the employee will achieve five years continuous service (the qualifying period) during the first 18 weeks of their parental leave: the first 14 weeks will be paid and the portion of leave (up to 4 weeks) after the end of the qualifying period will be paid. Any remaining balance, up to three years, will be unpaid parental leave.
 - A. The employee is not entitled to receive more than 18 weeks paid parental leave.
 - B. With the exception of any period during which the employee is engaged in outside employment during normal working hours, in the first 18 weeks from commencement of primary caregiver parental leave any unpaid parental leave taken will count as service to enable an employee to access the pro rata paid leave in clause 36.6(c)(iii).

For example, during their primary caregiver parental leave an employee achieves five years continuous service at the end of week 15. The employee is entitled to paid parental leave for the first 14 weeks, unpaid leave in week 15, and three weeks paid leave in weeks 16 to 18. The balance of 139 weeks primary caregiver parental leave available to the employee will be unpaid.

- (d) An employee who will achieve 12 months continuous service (the qualifying period) during the first 14 weeks of their parental leave and who will be the primary caregiver of their child is entitled to up to 52 weeks of parental leave, comprising:
 - (i) unpaid parental leave from commencement of parental leave until the time the employee has achieved 12 months continuous service; and
 - (ii) paid parental leave for any period after the qualifying period and up to 14 weeks from the commencement of parental leave; and
 - (iii) unpaid parental leave, up to 52 weeks, for the remaining balance.
 - (iv) The employee is not entitled to receive more than 14 weeks paid leave.
 - (v) With the exception of any period during which the employee is engaged in outside employment during normal working hours, in the first 14 weeks from commencement of primary caregiver parental leave any unpaid parental leave taken will count as service to enable the employee to access the pro rata paid leave in clause 36.6(d).

For example: During their primary caregiver parental leave an employee achieves 12 months continuous service at the end of week three. The employee is entitled to unpaid parental leave for the first three weeks, 11 weeks paid parental leave in weeks four to 14. The balance of 38 weeks primary caregiver parental leave available to the employee will be unpaid.

- (e) Commencement of Primary Caregiver Parental Leave
 - (i) An employee who is pregnant may commence primary caregiver parental leave at any time within six weeks immediately prior to the expected date of birth of the child. The period of parental leave must commence no later than the date of the birth of the child.
 - (ii) An employee who is adopting a child may commence primary caregiver parental leave at any time in the two weeks before the day of placement.
 - (iii) In all other cases, primary caregiver parental leave commences on the date of birth or day of placement of the child.
- (f) Where an employee's child dies during a period of primary caregiver leave, the employee may continue on leave for a maximum period of 52 weeks from the date of commencement of leave, unless the employee elects to resume duty, in which case the provisions of clause 36.19 apply.
- (g) An employee is not entitled to primary caregiver leave unless the notice and evidence requirements in clause 36.8 have been complied with.

36.7 Partner Leave

- (a) Partner leave is available to an employee who will have a parental responsibility for the care of their child but who is not the primary caregiver. Subject to applicable notice and evidence requirements, an employee may access:
 - (i) up to eight weeks partner leave within the first 12 months of the birth or adoption of their child, taken at the same time employee's spouse may be on leave, which can be taken in one block or broken into separate periods (refer clause 36.7(b)); and
 - (ii) where employee requires a longer period of partner leave, up to 12 months or 3 years depending on the employee's years of continuous service (refer clause 36.7(c)).

Note: The longer period of partner leave must be taken in a single continuous period unless the employee is accessing the combined parental leave provisions.

Eight Weeks Partner Leave

- (b) An employee is entitled to up to 8 weeks partner leave, comprising:

- (i) where continuous service is less than 12 months at the time of commencing partner leave, or an eligible casual employee: eight weeks unpaid partner leave; or
- (ii) where continuous service completed at the time of commencing partner leave is at least 12 months and less than five years: one week paid partner leave and seven weeks unpaid partner leave; or
- (iii) where continuous service completed is five or more years at the time of commencing partner leave: two weeks paid partner leave and six weeks unpaid partner leave.
- (iv) The eight week partner leave entitlements:
 - A. are an exception to the rule that parental leave is to be available to only one parent at a time in a single continuous period;
 - B. are to be taken in the first 12 months from date of birth or day of placement of the child;
 - C. may commence one week prior to the expected date of birth of the child or the time of placement in the case of adoption. The CEO and employee may agree to alternative arrangements regarding commencement of partner leave;
 - D. can be taken in separate periods, but each block of partner leave must not be less than two weeks, unless the CEO agrees otherwise;
 - E. requires the employee to give notice to the CEO at least 10 weeks before first starting the leave, and at least four weeks notice before starting any subsequent period of leave. If that is not practicable, as soon as practicable, which may be a time after the leave has started; and
 - F. the notice must specify the intended start and end dates of the leave.

12 Months or Three Years Partner Leave (Longer Partner Leave)

- (c) An employee is entitled to a period of longer partner leave as follows:
 - (i) An employee with less than 12 months continuous service at the time of commencing parental leave, or an eligible casual employee, up to 12 months unpaid parental leave, provided such leave must end within 24 months of the date of birth or day of placement of their child.
 - (ii) An employee with at least 12 months continuous service at the time of commencing parental leave up to three years unpaid parental leave, provided such leave must end within three years of the date of birth or day of placement of their child.

- (iii) Partner leave may commence at a date later than the date of birth or day of placement of their child but must not extend beyond specified limits under this clause.
 - (iv) An employee is not entitled to the longer partner leave unless the notice and evidence requirements in clause 36.8 have been complied with.
- (d) An employee, not entitled to Combined Parental Leave in clause 36.14, may be entitled to have a portion of their unpaid longer partner leave under clause 36.7(c)(ii) paid, subject to the following:
- (i) the employee's spouse was the primary caregiver at and immediately following the time of the birth or placement of the child;
 - (ii) the employee's spouse has ceased to be the primary caregiver (e.g. returned to work) before the child is 14 weeks old or within 14 weeks from placement in the case of adoption;
 - A. The reference to '14 weeks' in clause 36.7(d)(ii) to be read as '18 weeks' where an employee has five or more years continuous service at the time of commencing longer partner leave.
 - (iii) as a consequence of the employee's spouse no longer able to be the primary caregiver (eg returning to work), the employee has taken over caring responsibilities for the child such that the employee is the person who now meets the child's physical needs more than anyone else;
 - (iv) the notice and evidence requirements for taking longer partner leave in 36.7(d) have been complied with; and
 - (v) the amount of paid leave available is as per clause 36.7(e).

 - (ii) where continuous service completed is five or more years at the time of commencing partner leave: the period starting from the date the employee took over caring responsibilities from the employee's spouse up to a maximum of 18 weeks from the birth or placement of the child.

For example: An employee's spouse, who is not an NTPS employee, gives birth to a child and is off work for six weeks after the child is born as the primary caregiver. The NTPS employee (the child's other parent) has over five years of continuous service and takes two weeks paid partner leave when the baby is born. When the child is six weeks old the employee's spouse returns to her non-NTPS job and the NTPS employee takes longer partner leave to take over care of the couple's child. NTPS employee would be paid for 12 weeks of the longer partner leave after providing evidence showing that their spouse had ceased to be primary caregiver. This payment covers the period from the seventh to the eighteenth week following the birth of the child.

For example, if an employee utilises 14 weeks of parental leave over a period of 28 weeks at half pay, all leave entitlements will accrue as if the employee had used 14 weeks at full pay, and no leave entitlements will accrue over the final 14 weeks of parental leave on half pay.

47. Staff Performance Planning and Review

- 47.1 Unless otherwise agreed, employees and their managers will undertake an annual performance planning and review process in accordance with Departmental procedures.
- 47.2 Consistent with Employment Instruction 4, the Department will have a procedure for performance planning and review consistent with the following principles:
 - (a) regular and relevant feedback on work performance and capability should occur during the cycle of the plan, including where a manager suspects performance issues;
 - (b) alignment of Departmental and employee objectives;
 - (c) enhancement of the standards of work performance based on appropriate measures;
 - (d) identification of the knowledge, skills, resources and training required for an employee to perform their duties and for career development;
 - (e) identification of the requisite attitudes and behaviours that are consistent with the principles of the PSEM Act, Code of Conduct, and Departmental values;
 - (f) recognition of other factors that impact on an employee’s performance and development, including the ability to review and revise the plan where other issues arise; and
 - (g) recognition of the principles of natural justice including mechanisms for an employee to seek a review.
- 47.3 The Department will ensure that employees have an opportunity to familiarise themselves with the Department’s procedure for performance planning and review.
- 47.4 Employees and their managers are to participate in the process constructively.
- 47.5 An employee can expect that performance planning and review will occur and can request for the process to occur. Where an employee has requested that the annual performance planning and review process occurs, unless otherwise agreed, the process should commence within 14 days and be completed within 21 days from commencement.
- 47.6 Information collected through the performance planning and review process must comply with the Information Privacy Principles set out in Schedule 2 of the Information Act (NT).

47.7 Information gathered through the performance planning and review process will form part of the employee's employment record.

47.8 Where identified, performance-related issues have not been able to be resolved or rectified in line with clause 47.2, the employee's principal or manager may commence a formal performance improvement process.

48. Professional Learning and Training

48.1 The parties are committed to the implementation of a comprehensive professional learning and training agenda for teachers. This agenda is premised on targeted, effective professional learning and training that are aligned with system goals and meet the needs of teachers throughout their careers.

48.2 Professional learning and training may comprise activities scheduled for professional development days, programs during contact time (with appropriate relief arrangements) and activities voluntarily taken outside contact time.

48.3 The parties agree to the following arrangements to improve service delivery in Northern Territory Government schools:

(a) teachers will return to school a day before classes are scheduled to start for the year; and

(b) classes will finish a day earlier at the end of the year; and

(c) professional development days will be allocated as follows:

(i) one compulsory day before the start of each year;

(ii) two flexible days for which schools may apply, provided that they are not used during the first week of a school term; and

(iii) one compulsory NT-wide professional development day to be allocated at the discretion of the CEO.

48.4 For the purposes of clause 48.3(c)(ii), the request for approval for the additional days must be submitted no later than one month prior to the date proposed to hold the activity and an evaluation must be submitted no more than one month after the activity is undertaken.

48.5 The Department will also provide additional professional learning and training opportunities for staff both in school hours and outside school hours.

49. Learning Organisation

49.1 The parties recognise that to successfully meet the future needs of education in the NT, the Department must be a learning organisation.

49.2 A learning organisation is one where training, learning and development are integral tools for the achievement of core business and goals. Change is recognised as a normal on-going process.

- 49.3 Within the context of becoming a learning organisation, the Department recognises the importance of professional learning for all employees. Professional learning is a planned process of learning and development, which brings together the educational objectives of the Department and individual career development. It must occur within the requirements of the work group and within available resources. Responsibility for professional learning is shared by the individual employee, the work group, managers and the Department, to ensure the achievement of Department priorities. It should arise from a process of performance management and needs analysis, and involve a cycle of analysis, planning, reflection and evaluation.
- 49.4 The Department recognises and values the professionalism of its employees in taking responsibility for individual professional learning. The parties acknowledge that professional learning occurs in many different forms, including formally and informally, on and off the job and throughout the life of an individual, as part of an engagement with the improvement of professional practice.
- 49.5 The Department will maintain an up to date register of professional learning events and opportunities, which will be made available in a timely fashion.
- 49.6 The Department is committed to supporting whole of government employee development programs, including access to Assistance with Studies, Special Study Leave Program, Orientation, Workplace Induction and Performance Management. Furthermore, the Department supports access to Rapid Incremental Progression and Redeployment and Retraining.
- 49.7 Professional and human resource development matters, including mobility and exchange with industry, will remain as standing items on the agenda of the Education Consultative Committee.

50. Non-Contact Time

- 50.1 Non-contact time for Classroom Teachers of primary and pre-school-aged students with a full teaching load will be a minimum of three hours per week.
- 50.2 The provisions under clause 50.1 also apply to all Classroom Teachers with a full teaching load performing duties in the following facilities:
- (a) special schools and their annexes;
 - (b) intensive English units;
 - (c) gifted units;
 - (d) special education units;
 - (e) special and specific purpose units and classes.
- 50.3 Non-contact time for Classroom Teachers of secondary aged students in colleges, high schools and area schools is 5 hours and 20 minutes.
- 50.4 Classroom Teachers employed on a part-time basis will receive non-contact time pro-rata to their teaching load.

- 50.5 The exception to 50.4 will be Classroom Teachers employed on a part-time basis to facilitate the provision of non-contact time for other Classroom Teachers. These employees are not entitled to non-contact time.
- 50.6 Non-contact time for Teaching Principals will be provided at five hours and 20 minutes per week.
- 50.7 Non-contact time for Senior Teachers in school promotion positions is allocated pro-rata to their teaching loads.

51. Class Sizes

- 51.1 As a matter of government policy, and subject to this clause, no class in NT government schools will exceed 27 students.
- 51.2 The class structure and educational priorities of a school's programs should be decided by the Principal, after consultation with the teaching staff and the school community.
- 51.3 It is acknowledged that schools make local decisions about Classroom Teacher workloads, timetable structures and specialist programs to suit their own communities. This leads to variations in class sizes. Hence, there may be instances where Classroom Teachers work with more than 27 students. However, such instances will require consultation between the Classroom Teacher and the Principal, or their delegates, and recognition of students' needs prior to the placement of additional students.
- 51.4 These arrangements do not preclude situations that arise through team teaching or other arrangements as agreed at the workplace.
- 51.5 Consistent with the above, class sizes need to take into account space and safety considerations relevant to the activities being undertaken, which may be practical classes in industrial arts facilities, laboratories or gyms. These decisions will vary from place to place depending on individual school circumstances. Where there is a safety issue the Classroom Teacher has an obligation to raise it with their Principal in the first instance.
- 51.6 For the purposes of clause 51.5 the list of types of class is non-exhaustive.

52. Teacher Responsibilities

- 52.1 The parties acknowledge that the TRG has been developed to assist teachers by clarifying their responsibilities and the way in which they work with teaching colleagues.
- 52.2 It is further acknowledged that the TRG was developed collaboratively by the Department of Education and the Union; and as such, it is a shared document.
- 52.3 The Department of Education will not vary the TRG without the agreement of the Union, during the life of this Agreement.
- 52.4 For the avoidance of doubt, the content of the TRG is not incorporated into this Agreement.
- 52.5 The parties agree that the TRG will be reviewed during the life of this Agreement.

53. Workloads

- 53.1 The parties support the principle that employees should be able to achieve an appropriate balance between their work and personal lives.
- 53.2 An appropriate balance between an employee's work and personal life:
- (a) contributes toward healthy and productive workplaces;
 - (b) helps build a positive morale in the workplace; and
 - (c) assists in strengthening an individual's social and family relationships.
- 53.3 Department management, Principals, employees and employee representatives play a positive role in ensuring employee workloads are reasonable.
- 53.4 The parties recognise there may be unavoidable peak work periods where employee's workloads increase; however, this should be the exception rather than the norm.
- 53.5 Principals and employees should therefore ensure that employee workloads are reasonable.
- 53.6 Subject to clause 53.4, Principals will:
- (a) ensure employees have sufficient and appropriate resources to undertake their jobs;
 - (b) ensure the tasks allocated to employees can reasonably be performed in the hours for which they are employed, including reasonable additional hours;
 - (c) monitor employee workloads, work patterns, priorities, staffing levels/ classifications, use of work life balance arrangements, and any other relevant indicators within the workplace.
 - (d) implement strategies to ensure workloads remain reasonable;
 - (e) monitor vacant positions and fill vacancies in a timely manner; and
 - (f) consult with employees and their nominated representatives over workload issues.
- 53.7 Employees may request in writing for Principals to review ongoing and sustained workload issues in the workplace. Where so requested, Principals will consider the workload factors and issues raised, consider their effect on workplace, and if necessary, implement strategies to ensure reasonable workloads are maintained.
- 53.8 Principals will respond in writing to the employee(s) concerned in a timely manner.
- 53.9 An employee who considers their workload to still be excessive or unacceptable after the above processes have occurred may apply in writing to the relevant manager to have their workloads reviewed.

- 53.10 When the need is identified, the Department will, as far as practicable, provide assistance to the employee through the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and other appropriate interventions.
- 53.11 In circumstances in which a dispute over workloads affects office-based employees working in a corporate setting or regional office, then references to principals will be read as a reference to the relevant manager or director, however called.

54. Redeployment and Redundancy

54.1 The provisions of Schedule 2 Northern Territory Public Sector Redeployment and Redundancy Entitlements do not apply in transfer of business or transfer of employment situations where work of the employer is transferred or outsourced to another employer and the employee is offered employment with the second employer to perform the same or substantially similar work.

54.2 The National Employment Standard of the FW Act contains minimum entitlements relating to redundancy pay, including in transfer of business or transfer of employment situations. The FW Act provisions state, among other things, that redundancy pay does not apply in these situations if:

- (a) the second employer recognises the employee's service with the first employer; or
- (b) the employee rejects an offer of employment made by the second employer that:
 - (i) is on terms and conditions substantially similar to, and considered on an overall basis, no less favourable than, the employee's terms and conditions of employment with the first employer immediately before termination; and
 - (ii) recognises the employee's service with the first employer, unless the FWC is satisfied that this would operate unfairly to the employee who rejected the offer, in which case, upon application, the FWC may order the first employer to pay the employee a specified amount of redundancy pay.

56.3 The Commonwealth Superannuation Scheme (CSS), Northern Territory Government and Public Authorities Superannuation Scheme (NTGPASS) and Northern Territory Supplementary Superannuation Scheme (NTSSS) are classified as exempt public sector superannuation schemes under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993. The superannuation legislation treats exempt public sector superannuation schemes as complying funds for concessional taxation and superannuation guarantee purposes.

2.6.6 An employee who is eligible for the payment of income maintenance is entitled to receive compensation for all other identifiable and quantifiable disabilities, losses and expenses experienced or incurred by reason of the employee's transfer which in the opinion of the employer were brought about by the transfer.

2.7 Use of Accrued Personal Leave

2.7.2 For the purposes of an employee entitled to income maintenance under clause 2.6.3, the total extension permitted under clause 2.7.1 is capped at six months.

Example: A 50 year old employee with 10 years service receives notice of redundancy under clause 2.5.2(b). Ten weeks into the 52 week period of notice, the employee is transferred to a position of a lower designation and salary. The employee is entitled to income maintenance for 42 weeks. However, during the income maintenance period the employee takes four weeks certificated personal leave, with the result that the total period of income maintenance ends up being 46 weeks.

2.8 Right of Review

2.8.1 A surplus employee will have a right of review to the Commissioner against any administrative decision made in relation to the employee's eligibility for benefits under these provisions or in relation to the amount of those benefits.

2.9 Substitution or Other Provisions

Where the employer and the employee (and where requested by the employee, the relevant union) agree, provisions may be applied to a potentially surplus employee or a surplus employee which are in addition to, or in substitution for, any or all of the provisions prescribed in this Schedule.

Schedule 4 Procedure for the Identification and Placement of Teachers due to Displacement

4.1 Preamble

- 4.1.1 Schools determine their educational and related staffing needs at the beginning of each year or semester. These needs are determined by the Principal in consultation with the Schools Manager, staff and school community through the School Council.
- (a) They are also reflected in schools' Action Plan for School Improvement.
- 4.1.2 The application of the Department's staffing formula determines the number of teachers to be allocated to a school. On occasions this will mean that a school's allocation will be reduced, i.e. that some teaching staff will be displaced; in such situations the displacement process is to be enacted. A range of suitable processes are available to manage other staffing issues, e.g. Performance reviews, performance management, early intervention.
- 4.1.3 The displacement process outlined in this document applies to Classroom Teacher level positions only. Reductions in the number of Executive/Senior Teacher or non-teaching staff are managed using a different process.
- 4.1.4 Teachers affected by displacement will be treated fairly and equitably. It is therefore important that displacement transfer procedures be applied uniformly across the system. The Department recognises that displacement may cause difficulties for some teachers and will seek to minimise its effects wherever possible.
- 4.1.5 Displacement transferees will continue to receive personal and professional support arising from their placement. Displacement transferees will not suffer a reduction in salary unless the Redeployment and Redundancy provisions under Schedule 2 are invoked. Transferees will be entitled to all allowances relevant to their new position but will not be entitled to allowances that related only to their previous position.
- 4.1.6 Displacement transferees in receipt of salaries which include higher remuneration for different working conditions will be paid the salary entitlement equivalent to that of teachers at the same category and years of service levels working under normal school conditions.
- 4.1.7 Prior to the initiation of the displacement process the Department will determine teacher staff requirements at all government schools. In the context of this process the need for displacement may arise due to a number of circumstances including, application of the staffing formula, changed student and subject demands and needs and priorities of the school.
- 4.1.8 In schools so affected the Principal is required to notify the employees and their representatives that displacement of teacher(s) will be necessary and, when decided, the teacher(s) to be displaced.
- 4.1.9 The identification of the teacher(s) to be displaced may be made either by the Principal (where voluntary displacement only is required) or by a panel (where involuntary displacement is required) in accordance with this document. Panel composition is to include (but not restricted to) the Principal, a senior Human Resource Consultant and an employee representative (who is not a member of staff at the affected school).

4.2 Displacement

- 4.2.1 When the system-wide staffing needs have been identified the Schools Manager will advise the staffing units of vacancies within their respective clusters.
- 4.2.2 Schools affected by displacement will be provided with lists of all known teacher vacancies and their tenure.
- 4.2.3 Such schools will identify teaching areas that will need to reduce their staff and initially ask for volunteers for displacement transfer from these areas only. Employees are to be allowed a minimum of two working days in which to volunteer to be displaced. Longer timeframes may be allowed dependent on the urgency of the situation.
- 4.2.4 Volunteers will need to state their preferences for placement in order of priority. It should be noted that volunteers will not be automatically transferred but will be considered before other staff.
- 4.2.5 Volunteers for displacement transfer will be accorded priority for suitable placement to vacancies in other schools giving due regard to the volunteer's preferences, subject specialisation and specialist teaching skills and in accordance with the priority needs of the school program. Wherever possible any mitigating personal circumstances will be taken into account.
- 4.2.6 In the event there are more volunteers than required, or insufficient volunteers, the Principal or Panel or, in the case of small schools, the Group School Principal will make the initial selection based on the following criteria in order of priority:
- (a) The education and staffing needs of the school.
 - (b) Within the identified teaching areas, the most recently recruited teacher(s) to the school will be those identified for displacement noting the following points:
 - (c) Teachers employed on a temporary basis are to be identified for displacement transfer prior to permanent teachers.
 - (d) Generally, teachers transferred through displacement within the previous five years after permanent placement, will be exempt from further displacement transfer within this timeframe. Only in the most extreme circumstances should displacement occur within this timeframe.
 - (e) Permanent teachers on various forms of leave and those on temporary transfer or temporarily occupying promotion position will be entitled to be involved in accordance with these procedures.
- 4.2.7 At the involuntary displacement stage, a panel must be convened to manage the displacement process. The panel must establish clear timelines in which the process is to be undertaken and communicate these to affected employees. To facilitate transparent decision-making, teachers at affected schools may be requested to supply a copy of their CV and brief statement regarding their capacity to contribute to the identified future needs of that school. Employees are to be allowed a minimum of three working days in which to submit a CV and statement if required. Longer timeframes may be allowed dependent on the urgency of the situation.

- 4.2.8 In the event of the process not operating satisfactorily, the Department will seek to resolve problems in the first instance. Failing resolution, employer and employee representatives will seek to resolve the issue in consultation. In the event of this being unsuccessful the displaced teacher will have the right to pursue a Review of Grievance under Section 59 of the PSEM Act.
- 4.2.9 Teachers who have been involuntarily displaced must be given written notification of their displacement as soon as possible. Such notification will include details of their status and their rights as displacement transferees and of the displacement process.
- 4.2.10 The Department will be responsible for locating suitable placements and displacement transferees will be encouraged to assist in the process.
- 4.2.11 Where it is unlikely that a displaced teacher will be suitably placed within 12 months, or has not been permanently placed after 12 months, the Department may seek to invoke the provisions of the Redeployment and Redundancy provisions under Schedule 2 or revoke the teacher's displaced status.
- 4.2.12 Advice and counselling will be available from the agency, on request, to teachers volunteering or identified for displacement transfer.
- 4.2.13 These procedures are applicable to Classroom Teacher-level positions only. Alternative processes are available for managing required reductions in non-teaching and Executive and Senior Teacher positions.

4.3 Placement

- 4.3.1 Other than teachers displaced at an earlier time, displacement transferees will have the highest priority for placement and will be informed of all vacant teaching positions with a view to stating preferences for placement.
- 4.3.2 The Department will advise the displacement transferee of intended placement giving reasons for the placement.
- 4.3.3 The Department will consult with a teacher before placing them in a position that would result in a geographic relocation away from the teacher's normal place of residence.
- 4.3.4 Displacement transferees who are aggrieved by the placement action may exercise their rights to a Review of Grievance under section 59 of the PSEM Act providing that dispute settlement procedures under clause 12 of this Agreement have been observed.
- 4.3.5 Wherever possible the transfer of a permanent teacher will be to a permanent position.

Schedule 5 Rapid Incremental Progression for Beginning Teachers

This scheme enables beginning teachers, either ongoing or fixed period, to progress through the salary incremental levels at an accelerated rate.

Effectively this means that, under normal circumstances, a four-year trained beginning teacher who commences at the CT1 incremental level, progresses to the CT2 level at the commencement of the second year of teaching and the or CT3 level at the commencement of the third year of teaching. By accessing this scheme, such a teacher has the opportunity to move to the CT4 level at the commencement of the third year of teaching.

To access this scheme beginning teachers will need to fulfil the following requirements:

- Complete the employee's first two years of service in NT government schools.
- Complete the employee's first two years of service within a four year period.
- Complete the employee's probation within the first two years of service.
- Complete 20 points worth of tertiary studies or approved professional development courses within the first two years of service.

How to gain points

Completion of units at a university or tertiary institution will normally be accredited with 10 points per unit, as follows:

- Units in a Bachelor of Education, Master of Education, Doctorate, Graduate Certificate or Graduate Diploma in an educational field or other programs related to education.
- Units not recognised for credit in an education award provided that the field of study is relevant to the professional development of the individual teacher.

Teachers claiming points will need to submit proof of the satisfactory completion of the units.

Points may also be accredited for any approved professional development programs relevant to a teaching career. As a general guide one day programs will equate to one point, but this may vary depending on the rigour of the program, the hours involved and any follow up activities.

Proof of successful completion of a program will need to be supplied. In the case of school-based programs, this may consist of a substantiating letter from the school management.

As much information as possible should be supplied to ensure that the application can be accurately assessed.

Schedule 6 Work Life Balance Initiatives

6.1 General

- 6.1.1 In addition to the principles contained in clause 46 of the Agreement, access to the initiatives set out below must be in accordance with this Schedule.
- 6.1.2 The provisions of this Schedule do not apply to casual employees.
- 6.1.3 In accessing the leave initiatives set out below, it is not intended that employees be advantaged or disadvantaged in relation to the administration of accrual or payment of entitlements.

6.2 Recreation Leave at Half Pay

- 6.2.1 An employee may apply to utilise one or more weeks of their recreation leave at half pay, in order to double the period of the leave.
- 6.2.2 An employee cannot utilise recreation leave at half pay whilst under a purchased leave arrangement.
- 6.2.3 Where an employee utilises an amount of recreation leave at half pay:
- (a) leave entitlements will accrue as if the employee had utilised the amount of recreation leave at full pay.

For example, if an employee utilises two weeks of recreation leave over a period of four weeks at half pay, all leave entitlements will accrue over the first two weeks of leave, as if the employee was on recreation leave with full pay, and no leave entitlements will accrue over the final two weeks of recreation leave on half pay.

- (b) Salary and allowances will be paid at 50% of the usual rate, for the entire period of half pay.
- 6.2.4 A period of recreation leave at half pay does not break continuity of service.
- 6.2.5 The second half of the period of leave at half pay will not count as service and service based entitlements will be adjusted accordingly.

For example:

- If an employee utilises two weeks recreation leave over a period of four weeks at half pay, service based entitlements (e.g. personal leave, long service leave, paid parental leave) will be deferred by two weeks.
- If an employee utilises five weeks recreation leave over a period of 10 weeks at half pay:
- All service based entitlements other than recreation leave will be deferred by five weeks; and the annual entitlement to recreation will be reduced by one twelfth.

6.3 Purchase of Additional Leave ('Purchased Leave')

- 6.3.1 Entitlement to purchased leave

- (a) An employee who has completed 12 months continuous service may, with approval of the CEO, purchase between one to six weeks additional leave per year with a corresponding reduction in the number of working weeks.

Example:

Additional six weeks purchased leave (12 weeks leave in total)

Additional five weeks purchased leave (11 weeks leave in total)

Additional four weeks purchased leave (10 weeks leave in total)

Additional three weeks purchased leave (nine weeks leave in total)

Additional two weeks purchased leave (eight weeks leave in total)

Additional one week purchased leave (seven weeks leave in total)

- (b) An employee cannot access recreation leave at half pay whilst under a purchased leave arrangement.

6.3.2 Method of purchase

- (a) Additional leave must be purchased in advance and must be used within six months after payment is completed.
- (b) An employee purchasing additional leave will pay an amount equal to salary for the additional leave over a 12 month period. Payments will be deducted from the employee's gross fortnightly salary.

For example, Fred earns an annual gross salary of $47 006 or $1802.15 per fortnight. He purchases an additional four weeks leave which equates to two fortnightly pays (i.e. $3604.30). Fred's fortnightly deductions over a 12 month period (26) pays would be:

$138.80 for the first deduction; and

$138.62 for the remaining 25 deductions.

Note: Department of Corporate Information Services payroll is responsible for calculating actual deductions associated with an application for purchased leave.

- (c) The employee's deductions for purchased leave will be increased in accordance with salary increases applying during the period of the agreement.
- (d) A period shorter than 12 months for purchasing additional leave may be implemented with the CEO's approval.

6.3.3 Administrative

- (a) For the period over which payments are being deducted from an employee's salary to fund a purchased leave arrangement, compulsory employer superannuation contributions are calculated on the salary that the employee was paid:
 - (i) prior to purchased leave deductions being made in the case of NTGPASS and CSS employees; and

- (ii) after purchased leave deductions being made in the case of Choice of Fund employees.
- (b) Purchased leave will count as service for all purposes.
- (c) Purchased leave does not attract a leave loading.
- (d) Before accessing the additional leave, an employee who has purchased additional leave will be required to exhaust all available:
 - (i) recreation leave entitlements; and
 - (ii) long service leave entitlements, except where the employee has satisfied the conditions of By-law 8.3, provided that such requirement is waived in circumstances where an employee endeavours to exhaust available leave entitlements, but is prevented from doing so due to the operational requirements of the Department.

- (e) If an employee does not use the purchased leave within the period agreed and leave is not deferred, it will lapse, and the employee will be reimbursed monies paid.
- (f) Purchased leave must be taken in minimum periods of one week.
- (g) Where a public holiday falls within a period of purchased leave the period of the public holiday is not deducted from the employee's purchased leave balance.

6.3.4 Independent advice

Prior to entering into or ceasing a purchased leave arrangement an employee should seek, at the employee's own expense, independent advice regarding:

- (a) the employee's financial situation;
- (b) the potential impact on taxation; and
- (c) the potential impact on superannuation.

6.3.5 Application

To access purchased leave an employee must complete the standard purchased leave application form, which requires the employee to provide the following information.

- (a) details of the employee and the workplace;
- (b) duration of the purchased leave arrangement;
- (c) dates for the purchased leave to be taken; and

 - (viii) signatures of the employee and CEO.
- (b) A purchased leave agreement is non-renewable. On the expiry of an existing agreement, the employee may lodge a new application for approval by the CEO.

6.3.7 Cessation of purchased leave

- (a) A purchased leave arrangement may cease in the following ways:
 - (i) At the request of the employee on the giving of four weeks written notice to the CEO, provided that approval of the request is at the discretion of the CEO, based on operational and other relevant considerations.
 - (ii) At the initiative of the CEO, on the giving of three months written notice to the employee, along with reasons for the cessation.
 - (iii) The employee ceases employment with the NTPS.
 - (iv) The employee moves to a new work area within the agency, or to another agency (unless the new work area or agency agrees to continue the arrangement).
- (b) Where a purchased leave arrangement ceases in accordance with clause 6.3.7(a), the employee will be reimbursed a lump sum payment of monies paid within two months of the date of cessation, provided that where the employee has already commenced the period of purchased leave, the employee will be reimbursed monies paid on a pro rata basis, in accordance with the portion of monies relating to the unused period of leave.
